

Investiture Ceremony

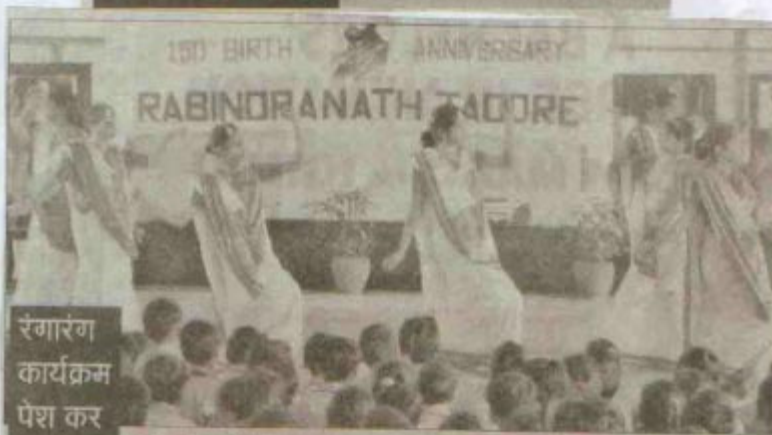

Salwan Public School, Tronica City, recently held its investiture ceremony at its main hall. Outgoing Head Boy Anurag Sharma and Head Girl Aditi Rawat formally handed over the charge to newly elected heads Rajesh Prajapati and Kritika Jain who pledged to serve the school selflessly. Director Col (Retd) DK Tomar graced the oath taking ceremony. Principal Premila Sharma honoured the captains and urged them to be responsible school heads.

Celebrations

Salwan Public School, Tronica City, turned into a cultural hub when the school celebrated Rabinranath Tagore's 150th birth anniversary by organising a special assembly.

An exhibition was organised by the art department. Pictures made by the students using pencil shading work, coal work and paintings, depicting the brief life story of Tagore were displayed. A Bengali group dance based on the songs of Tagore was performed by the students.

Then, the director, Col. DK Tomar and principal, Premila Sharma along with the students planted nearly a hundred fruit trees within the school premises.
